10 March 2014

Dear,
Sh. Roostaei

ID:112 - Assessment of geotourism Capabilities, Case Study: Western slopes of Mount Sabalan (Meshkinshahr), Iran

We are pleased to inform you that, on the basis our committee's decision, your above-referenced paper has been accepted for presentation at the 3rd Interdisciplinary Tourism Research Conference to be held in Istanbul, Turkey, 03 - 08 June 2014. Congratulations!

Please visit the following link to complete your registration:
<https://bodrumart.net/itrc/RegistrationFormEn.aspx>

Each speaker will be allocated approximately 15 minutes to complete their presentation. Please be informed that further information about the registration, provisional program, accommodation and social activities has already been uploaded on the official conference web site (<http://www.gradtourismconference.org>). The provisional conference program will also be announced on this web address as soon as it has been finalised (most probably early May 2014).

Thank you very much for your interest and contribution to this event. Please feel free to contact me any time if you may have any queries.

We look forward to meeting you in Istanbul, Turkey.

Best wishes

Metin Kozak, Ph.D.

Nazmi Kozak, Ph.D.
